2) The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Department of Justice - Criminal Division are departments of the United States Government which has among its constituent agencies the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Department of Justice - Criminal Division, herein named as Defendants;

3) The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Department of Justice - Criminal Division are agencies within the meaning of the term "agency" as that term is used in the Freedom of Information and Privacy Act;

4) The Federal Bureau of Investigation and Department of Justice - Criminal Division prepare and maintain a system of records pertaining to investigation of Defendants who are subject to the jurisdiction of the United States District Courts which includes the Northern District of Oklahoma.

5) Both Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics and Osage County Sheriff Department acted in concert with federal agencies in this matter and thus for the purposes of this litigation are agencies of the federal Department of Homeland Security.

6) That between August 31, 2009 and September 2, 2009, the Plaintiff made requests in writing for copies of documents and records within the systems of records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Department of Justice - Criminal Division, the Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics and the Osage County Sheriff Department as to Criminal Case No. 05-CR-70-CVE, which documents and records may have been created and compiled during the years 2002 through and including 2007;

7) Specifically, Plaintiff requested that he be furnished within ten (10) days as provided by law [5 USC § 552(a)(6)(A)], copies of the following specified documents or information: For years 2002 through and including 2007, all documents, records, reports, and communications naming or concerning John Thomas Watters;

8) Further, the request is not limited to the above. It includes all documents, reports, pictures, exhibits, memorandums, letters, summaries, handwritten note, recordings, and all other information concerning John Thomas Watters which is contained in their offices under the supervision and administration of the above stated agency or branch of government including but not limited to companion investigations of Kenneth Jones, Michelle Quisenberry, Jerry Harris, and others;

DESCRIPTIVE LIST OF CRIMINAL DIVISION SECTIONS THAT MAINTAIN RECORDS BY PERSONAL IDENTIFIERS

TO EXPEDITE YOUR REQUEST: Please read the description of the information contained in each Criminal Division section before requesting a search of that office. You may request a search of any Criminal Division section that you reasonably believe may contain records relating to you. However, if you have no reason to believe that a particular section will have information about you, requesting that section may cause unnecessary delays in our response. Please be aware that most Federal prosecutions are conducted by the local United States Attorney's Office, whose records may be requested from the Executive Office for United States Attorneys, and not the Criminal Division. Also, if you are seeking records of other components of the United States Department of Justice (such as the FBI or the DEA) or of offices/agencies of the United States government, you should address your request directly to those components/agencies. A listing of addresses of the FOIA contacts for all Federal agencies may be found at <http://usdoj.gov/foia/foiacontacts.htm>.

☐ Appellate Section

The Appellate Section prepares draft briefs and certiorari petitions for the Solicitor General for filing in the U.S. Supreme Court; makes recommendations to the Solicitor General as to whether further review is warranted on adverse decisions in the district courts and courts of appeals; and prepares briefs and argues cases in the courts of appeal. The Section also prepares and argues motions in significant district court cases.

☐ Asset Forfeiture and Money Laundering Section (AFMLS)

AFMLS investigates and prosecutes complex money laundering and asset forfeiture cases and provides support on asset forfeiture and money laundering issues to each of the 93 United States Attorneys' offices and the component agencies.

☐ Capital Case Unit (CCU)

CCU is primarily responsible for assisting the Attorney General's Review Committee on Capital Cases (AGRCCC) in its evaluation of capital cases submitted by United States Attorneys to the Department of Justice for review and recommendation to the Attorney General concerning the appropriateness of seeking the death penalty.

☐ Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section (CEOS)

☐ Domestics Security Section (DSS)

DSS investigates and prosecutes criminal organizations that smuggle aliens, including those that have ties to terrorist organizations, as well as individuals who illegally harbor aliens, provide false identification documents, and contract with smuggling groups to obtain illegal workers for factories and plants. DSS also investigates and prosecutes violent crime cases for which federal jurisdiction exists, including the prosecution of firearms and explosives.

Fraud Section

The section advises the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, Department of Justice and other federal officials involved in drug enforcement on all matters related to federal narcotics law enforcement including proposed and enacted legislation, policy, enforcement initiatives, and criminal and civil litigation. The section has direct litigation responsibilities in significant investigations and prosecutions targeting national and international narcotics trafficking and money laundering organizations.

Dear Sir or Ms.:

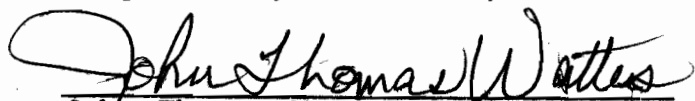

This communication will constitute written demand that your office finalize and resolve all outstanding issues and transfer over to me all documents and records concerning me within thirty (30) days of receipt. In other words, discontinue your obvious policy and practice of delay and provide me all previously requested documents and records which I as a citizen have a right to.

These documents are critically needed in an appeal currently before the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals. If you and your organization do not provide the requested information within thirty (30) days, then I will consider that you have refused my previous requests and will promptly file a FOIA action in federal District Court.

Please advise.
